Feed regularly at the same time each day.

If your dog has been accustomed to canned food, it may take some time before dry food is comfortably accepted.

Feeding Guide

Dog Weight	Feed Amount/Day
1 - 5 kg	40g - 130g
5 - 10 kg	130g - 220g
10 - 20 kg	220g - 370g
20 - 30 kg	370g - 500g
30 - 40 kg	500g - 620g

1 Standard Metric Cup (250ml) is approximately 130g

The above recommendations are a guide only and should be adjusted to suit your dog's age, weight, breed and activity level.

Pregnant Dogs

Maintain normal feeding during the first six weeks. Gradually increase quantities to approximately double the normal feeding rate during the final three weeks of pregnancy. Supplement with whole milk if possible.

Nursing Dogs

As she is feeding her pups, increase her feed amount to approximately three times her normal intake, depending on the size of her litter.

Working Dogs

Require 1.5 to 2 times more feed than less active dogs. Adjust the feeding rate so the dog maintains a healthy weight.
